

Updated Information on our Annual Holiday Tour of Homes

If 2020 were a normal year, The Florida Orchestra Guild, St. Petersburg, would be preparing for The 9th Annual Holiday Tour of Homes traditionally held the first weekend in December. In this year of the pandemic, there will be no tour and we have found a unique way of fundraising to support our wonderful orchestra.

For several years, Parkshore Grill's Chef Tyson Grant and his staff have been the creative talent behind the elegant buffets at our annual Holiday Tour of Homes receptions, traditionally held the first Friday in December. This year, Parkshore Grill has graciously agreed to host a four-course dinner paired with appropriate wines. Limited seating with social distancing and CDC guidelines will be observed. This one-of-a-kind event, with a menu designed by Tyson Grant, will take place on Friday, December 4, 2020, to benefit The Florida Orchestra.

Your interest and support at any level are vital to the future of the Orchestra. Our hope is that you will contribute generously to the Orchestra we all love. Contribution levels are listed below.

Thank you and, with all of our continued support, may we keep the music playing.
